

BUSINESS COUNCIL
OF CO-OPERATIVES AND MUTUALS

Terry Agnew, Group Chief Executive Officer, RAC WA

Terry is the Group CEO of RAC (Western Australia). RAC started as a motoring club in 1905 and now provides a range of diverse services to over 800,000 Western Australians in the areas of motoring, insurance, finance, travel, retirement and home services.

Before joining RAC, Terry was Managing Director of SGIC Holdings Ltd. (a general insurance and health insurance organisation) in South Australia.

Terry has had a range of executive and board roles with private and public companies, mutual and member organisations, government, and educational organisations. He currently sits on the board of Edge Employment Solutions, the Insurance Commission of WA, RAA Insurance and the Business Council of Co-operatives and Mutuals. Terry is also Chairman of the Curtin Business School Advisory Council. He is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, Fellow of the Australian Institute of Management, Senior Fellow of the Financial Services Institute of Australia (Finsia) and Member of the Australian Institute of Engineers.