

AHEAD OF THE CURVE:

Co-operatives and Mutuals Delivering a Stronger Australian Economy

Peter Hunt, Chief Executive Officer, Mutuo (UK)

Peter founded Mutuo in 2001 as the first cross mutual sector body to promote mutual business to opinion formers and decision makers.

Peter led the Parliamentary teams which piloted four private members bills through the UK Parliament, working with all parties to update co-operative & mutual law and encouraging employee ownership. He is a founder member of the management board of the Oxford Centre for Mutual and Employee-owned business.

In 2011, he advised the UK Coalition Government on its plans to mutualise Post Office Ltd and in 2012 published the report of the Ownership Commission, a two-year study into corporate diversity.